DEDICATION

We, the class of 1949, dedicate this yearbook to all the faculty of Greenfield High School. We do this in recognition of the fact that throughout our years at Greenfield High School the faculty has assisted our class not only in the scholastic field but also in the many activities of high school life. Without this cooperation the success that has accompanied our efforts would not have been possible. Therefore, we should like to take this opportunity to thank the faculty of Greenfield High School for their inestimable contribution to the success of our class.

IN APPRECIATION

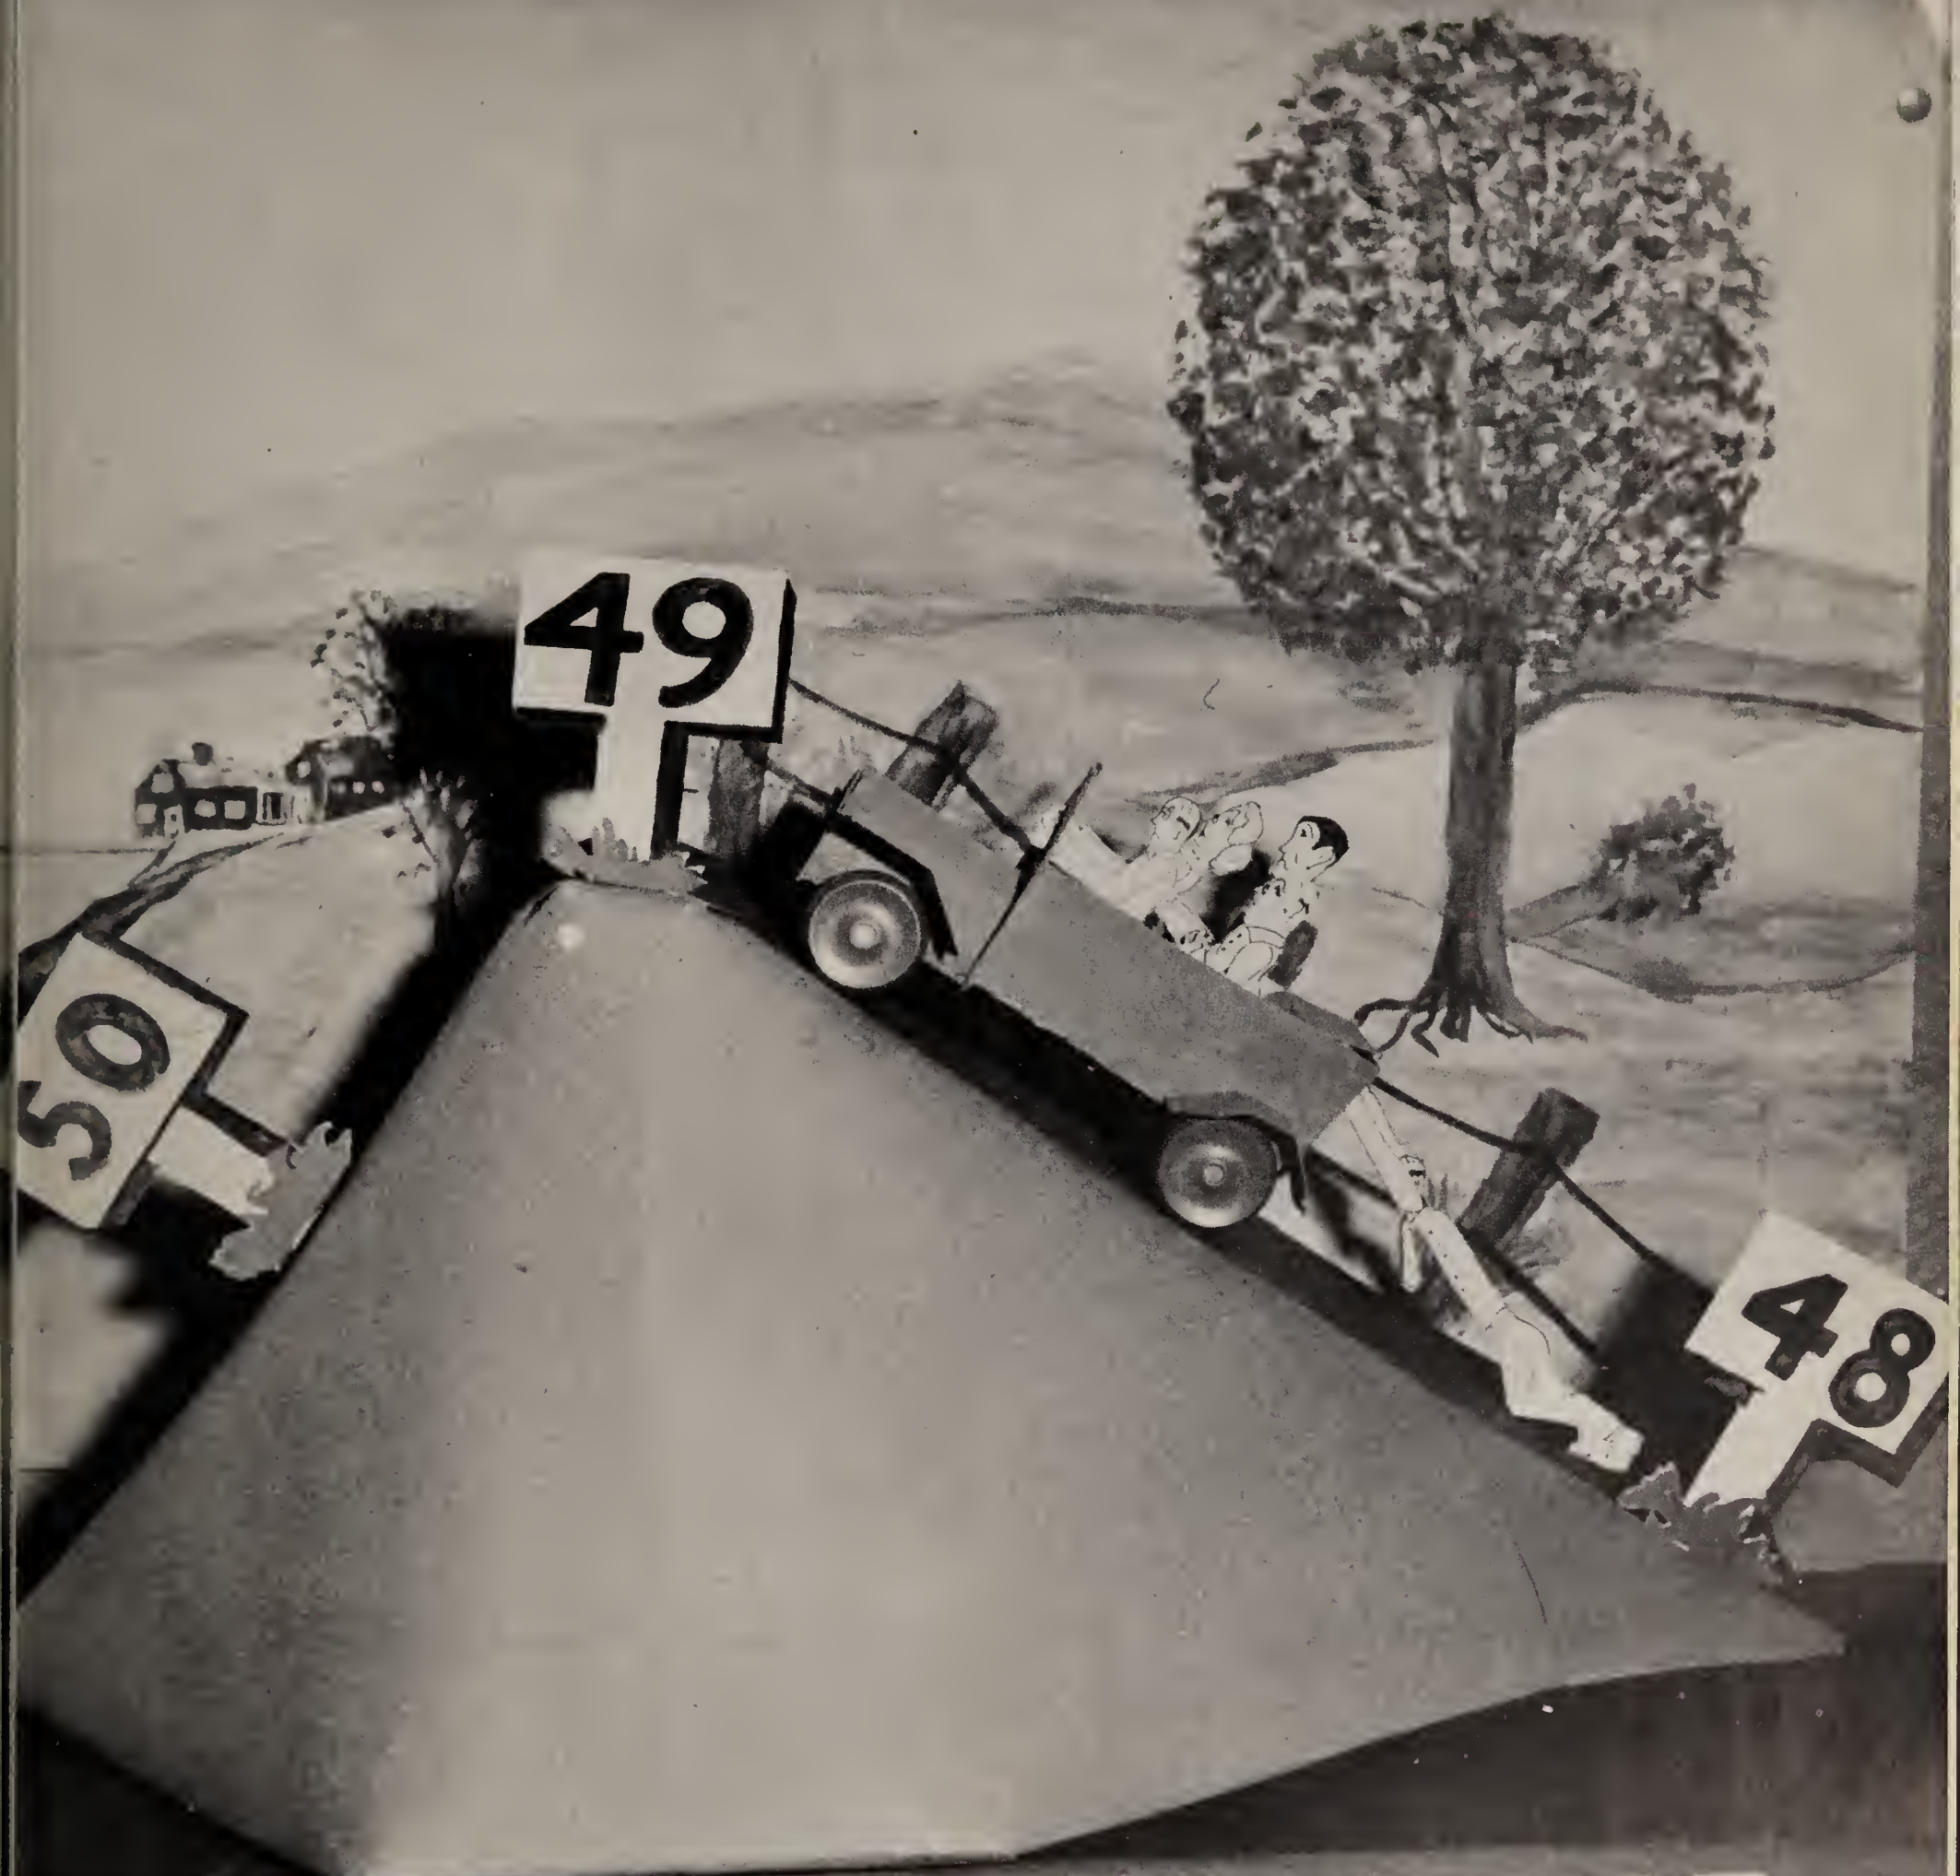

MR. LENARD E. DEWYEA

MR. STEPHEN K. LOVETT

We, the class of 1949, would like to express our appreciation to Mr. Lenard E. Dewyea and Mr. Stephen K. Lovett who have been our counselors. For their invaluable help and advice we shall always be indebted.

Officers: Douglas Bonneville, President; Kenneth Salisiewski, Vice-President; Robert Hyman, Treasurer; Janet Roberge, Secretary.

The Class of 1949 was first introduced to the Greenfield Chapter of Massachusetts State Pro Merito in April of 1948 when Douglas Bonneville, Lorraine Holmes, Robert Hyman, Janet Roberge, Stephen Stamatopolus, and Joanna Wunsch were appointed to Junior Pro Merito. These students, along with their faculty advisor, Miss Marion Bartlett, Mr. Arthur Watt and Senior members of Pro Merito, attended the spring, annual State Convention which was held May 8, 1948 at Technical High School in Springfield. At this state meeting Stephen Stamatopolus was elected President of the State Pro Merito.

In September of 1948 new members were announced. They were: Norman Aaron, Beverly Bates, Betty Chesney, Margaret Donahue, Williamina Harvey, Edwin Karas, Ruel Morse, Lillian Musiak, Carolyn Podworski, Elaine Rogalski, Kenneth Salisiewski, Dorothy Sheehan, Maxwell Strange, Raymond Tenney, and Howard Wing.

Many members attended the District Convention in Orange on Wednesday October 6, 1948 at which they met members of surrounding high schools.

As a means of raising money, Pro Merito sold programs at the school football games. These programs were printed in the school Print Shop and sold by student volunteers.

After the mid-year marks were averaged, two new members were added. These were Peggy Cheves and Donald Jacobs.

The annual, spring convention of Massachusetts State Pro Merito was held May 14, 1949 in Greenfield. Over four hundred students from all parts of Massachusetts attended. Thus a successful year was climaxed by this entertaining convention.

The members of Pro Merito would like to take this opportunity to thank Miss Marion Bartlett for her untiring effort toward making this such a successful and enjoyable year.

The Class of 1949 Presents

THE most successful senior play in recent years was presented on the nights of the nineteenth and twentieth of November by the class of 1949. The play, a Henry Aldrich comedy, co-starred Howard Wing and Sheila Dunnigan in the leading roles of Henry Aldrich and Barbara Pearson. Goldsmith's sparkling comedy, "What a Life" has achieved great popularity in recent years. The plot of the play concerns the theft of several band instruments for whose disappearance Henry is blamed. Henry's appearance in the principal's office one morning set him off on a chain of merry adventures, which were to cause him much grief. Upon meeting Barbara in the office Henry invites her to the football dance. Although George Bigelow had previously dated her for the event she agreed to go with Henry because of George's rudeness to Henry. As Henry's marks are on the downgrade, his mother refuses to allow him to attend the dance unless he passes his Roman History exam with the highest grade in the class. Realizing that he is unable to do so, Henry resorts to cribbing and is caught in the attempt. Ferguson from police headquarters then appears on the scene and with the help of Miss Wheeler, the music teacher, finally locates the missing instruments in a pawnshop. After examining several specimens of handwriting, Ferguson concludes that the true culprit is George Bigelow and not Henry. The many other characters not only help to further the plot, but also contribute realism and humor to the production.

GREEN YEARS

Three short years ago we entered these now familiar corridors of Greenfield High School. They were strange and new. Behind each door lurked a new and unknown menace. But, worst of all, there were seniors — seniors who knew every nook and cranny of this new and overawing building. But somehow we survived these days, and soon we learned the ways of the high school and the characteristics of some of our teachers. One in particular

Football rolled around almost before we knew it, and we had the Western Massachusetts Championship for the second successive year. Remember that game with Westfield which we won in the last few minutes 26-21?

Winter came and brought with it basketball. Several members of the class of 1949 stood out very prominently on that year's team. Among them were Kenny Salisiewski, Lenny Harris, Justin Moore and Howie Burns. Winter also brought other things. The least of these was mid-year exams. Surviving this ordeal we found spring around the corner. When spring comes of what does a young man think? Right! And what could be more symbolic of this thought than the following photo?

Spring also brought strains of music and the annual Spring Concert.

Of course spring had other complications including the following:

Along came graduation time and now we were juniors. We could look down on the unfamiliar sophomores. There were still seniors to fear. Nevertheless, we did our part on the football field. Remember that last game we helped win for Moe?

After Turkey Day Rehearsals for what was to be Mr. Jeff's last musical show began. "Do You Remember" those dances?

We also discovered the versatility of our class president as he showed how it used to be done.

A few of the more adventurous set out for Washington with some of the faculty. The trip provided some laughs, especially in this masterpiece.

In our Junior year a new sport appeared in the school curriculum. Under the direction of the truant officer how could the tennis club be anything but successful.

Came the fall of 1948 and we were about to become seniors. We certainly proved that we were a smart class by electing Doug Bonneville, president, George Dyer, vice-president, Rosemary Cotton, secretary, and Ken Salisiewski treasurer.

And we didn't do so badly in picking our home room officers.

After two years we were on our last leg of the journey through Greenfield High School. This was our last chance to leave our mark in our Alma Mater. The track team worked hard under the direction of Coach Georgerian but once again we lost to our friends (?) across the river. However, the team well represented the school in the spring events.

Came football again and these smiling faces were seen everywhere.

Field Hockey proved highly successful among the weaker sex of the school. "Lep-erosy" was introduced to our vocabulary. Maybe these characters know about that.

The first of the talent shows came, and we saw some of our underclassmen in action. We also saw what some of our class could do in the way of shirt-removal service.

Every night the lights burned late in the auditorium. Shouts and cries rent the air for the Senior Play was taking shape.

On the same stage we saw that Swede or was he a Norwegian? Whatever he was he sure could beat that drum.

The end of the football season meant the end of a school athletic career for some, but nobody can say the end was not befitting a good team.

And Stan Benjamin's appetite produced this masterpiece.

A new year came along, and basketball received a shot in the arm. Or was it a death-blow? Whichever way you look at it, the faculty did a good job despite long cigars and falling pants.

Don't forget the girls team. They lost their first game in over three years, but the girls were just as good in defeat as in the preceding 39 games. What other test could there be of true champions.

Of course school would not be complete without the gang at the Corner Store.

We hope you don't get the impression that school is all work and no play. To make sure we include the following:

Now we have finished our stay in this school. There have been times when we revolted and hated the very walls of this school. But we have formed real friendships. Now before us is the road of life. For some it will be rocky while others will find it smooth and wide. On our journey down this road we shall still remember our years in Greenfield High School and the friends we once knew.

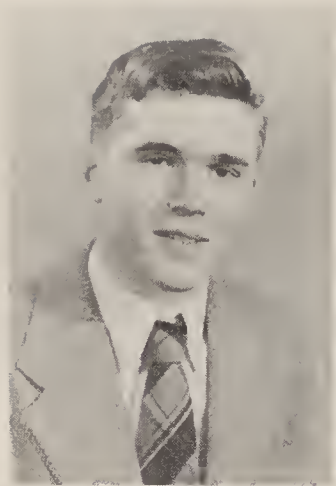

IVY ODE

Tune – “The Palisades”

Ye ivy, verdant, tender ivy,
Ye sacred crown on Bacchus' head,
Our voices echo to thy symbol,
As known to all the sages old.
Increase your twining vines and flourish;
Become the token of our faith;
Illumine now our upward pathway,
Ye symbol of our lives.

Ye ivy, verdant, tender ivy,
Embodiment of ages old,
Awaken to the Springtime's murmur;
Wax strong in Phoebus' summer rays;
Be calm amid the autumn Zephyrs,
And rest in Winter's dark'ning days;
Then rise unto a radiant vision,
Ye symbol of our lives.

— Joanna Lillian Wunsch

CLASS SONG

Tune – “Annie Lisle”

Here assembled with our classmates
For our last good-by,
Ne'er again we meet together
In dear old Greenfield High.

Here we've seen our classmates' faces
In the years gone past;
Now we leave these halls together,
Friends both true and fast.

When we face the world tomorrow,
We will not forget
All the joys we leave behind us
With a sad regret.

Chorus:

As we view the days behind us,
Never growing less,
Praise once more our Alma Mater,
Dear old G. H. S.

— Howard Elmer Wing

THE Student Council is the governing body of the Greenfield High School. It is composed of representatives from each homeroom and shop. The main duties of the council are to sponsor certain social activities, charter clubs, and make any decisions on matters that may pertain to the student body. This year the council revised the Silver "G" requirements, and also created a sympathy committee which sent cards of gifts to students who were ill. In co-operation with the P. T. A. the council appointed students to various committees of the P. T. A. in the first step to active participation in P. T. A. activities by the students themselves.

THE Hi-Y Club of Greenfield has lived up to its purpose of civic and school service. Not only has this organization sponsored the Commencement Dance for over 20 years, but it has also donated its time and services to such various organizations as the Y's Mens' Club, Community Chest, Red Cross and others. This year the club has pledged its aid to the formation of a YMCA organization for the supervision of grade school youngsters. By donating the proceeds from the sale of programs at basketball games, Hi-Y has shown its interest in school sports. The twenty-fifth year of Hi-Y under the guidance of Mr. Sander has been an eventful one.

EXPONENT

This year the Exponent was again printed in the Greenfield High School Print Shop by the vocational students under the direction of Mr. Joseph Taylor.

The column, "Editor's Scratch Pad," was continued from last year. New features were the serial, "Adventures of Clyde McRunt," a feature on popular songs, and a column devoted to nicknames.

Special issues were planned for Christmas and April Fool's Day. The final issue was published in conjunction with the yearbook and featured the Senior Class activities. This issue contained the senior class history, prophecy, and will, as well as awards and honors and a summary of such spring sports as baseball, track, and softball. The Exponent looks to another fine year and hopes that the standards set by the class of 1949 will be maintained by succeeding classes.

UNDER the capable guidance of Mr. Johnson and leadership of Rosemary Cotton, this year's cheerleaders captured and added another cheering cup to the trophy case. This was possible because of the fine sportsmanship and co-operation of the student body and its willingness to follow the cheerleaders.

The cheerleaders followed the teams to every game and helped to spirit them along to many wins.

Snappy-looking uniforms plus plenty of pep and energy will always be remembered as characteristics of this year's cheerleaders.

MUSICAL SHOW

“STATION G. H. S. 1949 on your Dial,” the first such production by Phil Johnson, proved to be an outstanding success. The program opened with several marches featuring the Greenfield Public School Band assisted by the junior and senior twirlers. This was followed by an accordian solo by Allen Pratt. Patricia Seibert rendered “Il Bacio” in English and Italian. Doug Bonnevill then took over with his version of “My Mammy” a la Al Jolson.

Assuming the baton, Howard Wing, band president, led the band in the march “Lexington.” Charlie Keller, magician of the day, amazed the audience with his legerdemain. A second solo by Patricia Seibert was followed by two Glee Club numbers, “Nightfall” and “Serenade.”

After intermission, the orchestra opened with two popular numbers, featuring Larry Shumway and Bill Casey. Two piano solos were followed by another orchestral number and vocal by William Ostrowski.

“The New Look,” a dance number, took an unexpected twist and proved one of the highlights of the show. Larry Masiello’s

“Return to Sorento” brought wide acclaim from the audience. Two dance numbers, a ballet by Maureen Martin and a routine by several dancers, set the stage for a vocal by Carolyn Streigel.

Following this, there was a piano duet by Evelyn Lewis and Pauline Bibby. A vocal trio harmonized in two semi-classical numbers. The flawless playing of Howard Wing on the trumpet made the sun shine through “Stormy Weather.” Mary Hanley performed a ballet. In place of Peggy Moran, who became ill, Lorraine Holmes gracefully filled in with a toe dance. Bobby Edmonds then drew several encores with his free and uninhibited dancing.

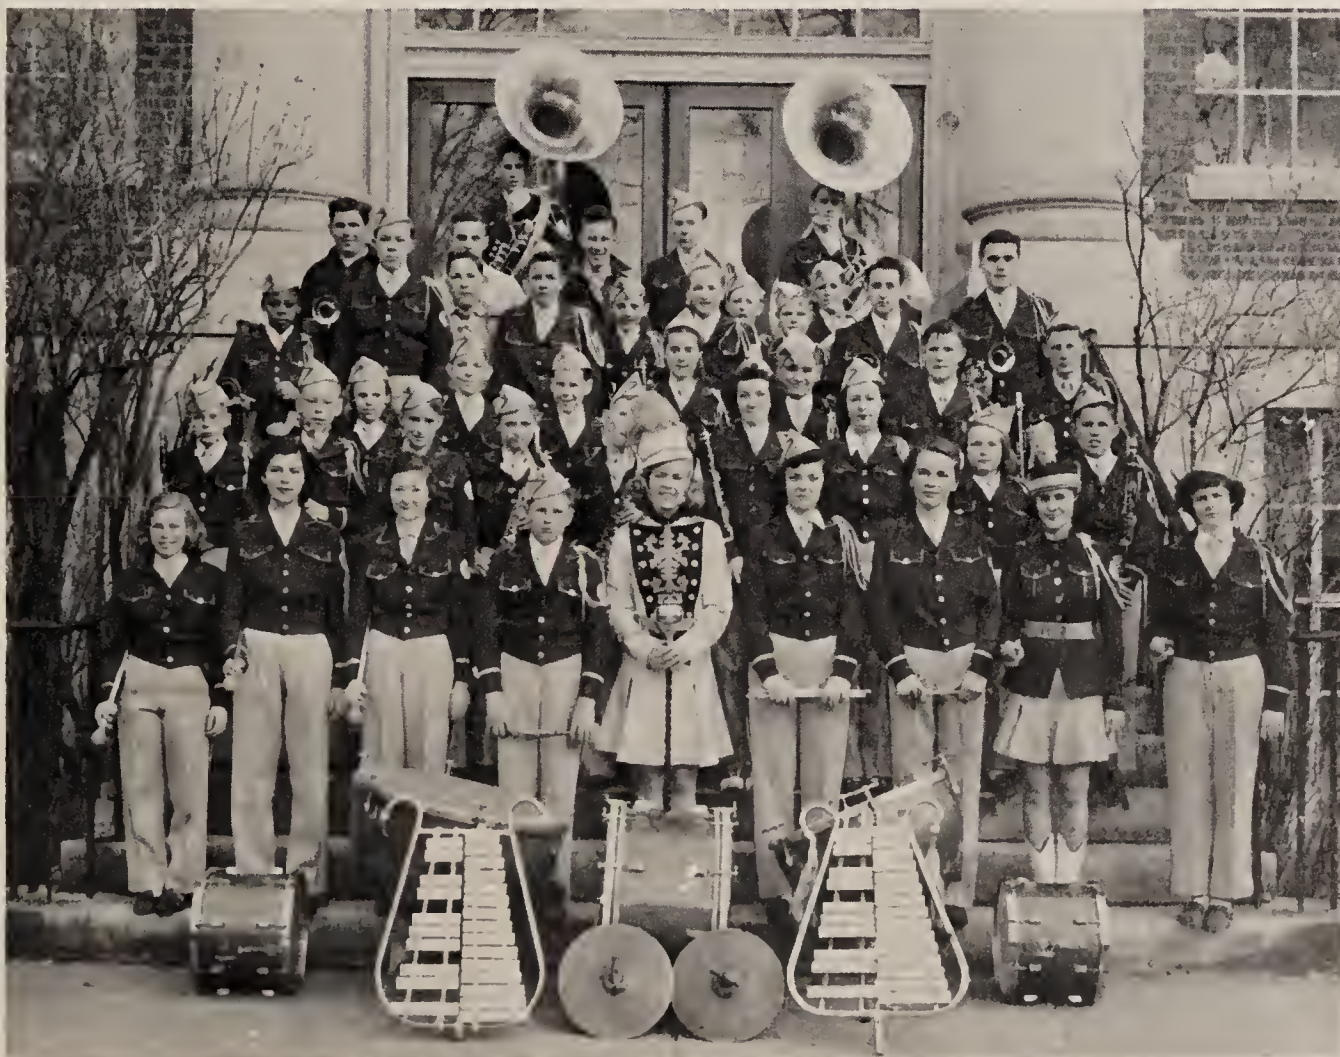

After a dance routine by underclassmen, Juanita Harris sang a solo. The comedy songs by Doug Bonnevill, Ken Salisiewski, John Barry, were warmly received. This was followed by a specialty by Walter Peters, a tap dance routine, and a repeat performance by Charles Keller. “This is My Country,” sung by the entire cast, brought to a close this successful musical production.

ALTHOUGH the Forum held its first meeting October 15, 1948, with Mr. Stanley L. Cummings as guest speaker, the club was not formally organized until November. Mr. Cummings spoke on the structure of the United Nations. At the November meeting Dolores Blassburg, Adelaide Clifford and Janet Roberge spoke about phases of the American Friends Service Committee. After the meeting Miss Rose, Maureen Martin and the speakers nominated candidates for office.

On January 13, 1949, Dr. S. K. Kaan, an interne at the Franklin County Public Hospital, spoke on conditions in present-day China. Two forums were held in February.

On February 13, Dr. Anne M. Cooke of Howard University, Washington, D.C., lectured on "Living Together in Today's World". The next day the Forum sponsored Dr. Cooke in assembly at which time she spoke on the theatre. On February 16, members were invited by the International Study Group of the Woman's Club to hear Mr. Channing L. Bete discuss his views of the need of world federation. An interesting discussion followed with many students taking part.

On March 8, another Forum was held concerning world government. Mr. Dan H. Fenn was the club's guest at this meeting. The following day in the school assembly, Mr. Fenn spoke about the "Berlin Question".

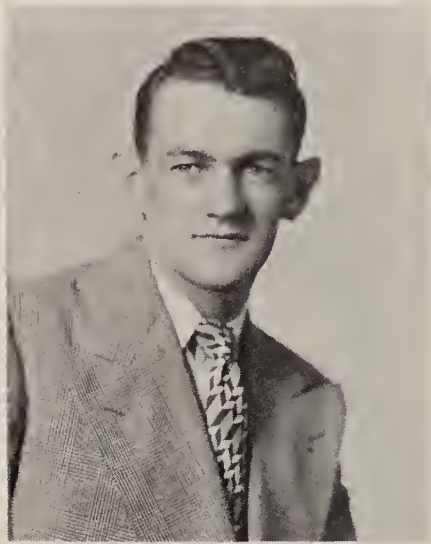

On April 7, Mr. Philip Adams of the Greenfield High School Art Department lectured on "Modern Art". Mr. Adams supplemented his speech with several of his own paintings and an extemporaneous sketch.

RAPIDLY becoming a major sport in Greenfield High School, the track squad had a successful season in 1948-49.

The opening meet, at the Franklin County Fair in the fall against Turners Falls High School, was lost by $2/3$ of a point. The final score was $42 \frac{1}{3}$ to $41 \frac{2}{3}$.

Turners Falls held the edge in the running events but Greenfield came back strong in the field events and had a $4 \frac{1}{3}$ point lead before the decisive half-mile relay run which Turners won.

Training the squad heartily with the anticipation of honors in various meets, Track Coach Georgerian scheduled four meets, two of them dual meets with other schools and all meets away from home.

The Greenies went to Westfield High School and came back with a $59 \frac{1}{2}$ to $39 \frac{1}{2}$ win. "Sonny" Allen, "Lennie" Harris, "Rabbit" Graves, "Jimmy" Harris, and "Ken" Salisiewski paced the Greenies to this win. Allen won the discus, shot put and the javelin events, Salisiewski won the high jump, Graves won the pole vault, "Lennie" Harris won the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash and the running broad jump and "Jimmy" Harris won the half mile run.

In their next meet, the Greenfield High School team suffered a 58 to 41 defeat at the hands of an experienced and talented track squad at Drury High School in North Adams.

On entering the University of Massachusetts Relays at Alumni Field at UM, the Greenfield team placed second with 21 points in Class D competition. Rockland High School won the Class D meet but was not far ahead of GHS.

Again Sonny Allen shone in the discus, javelin and shot put throws but team totals were added and Greenfield placed first in one and second in the other two.

Greenfield won the 880 yard relay event on the combined efforts of "Howie" Burns, "Kenny" Salisiewski, "Jimmy" Harris, and "Rabbit" Graves who turned in a neat time of 1:40:4.

Allen had been hitting around 160 feet in his javelin throws and had his eye on breaking the record at the Western Massachusetts High School meet at Westfield late in May. The record had been about 156 feet.

FOOTBALL

Bottom: John Taylor, Ray Dykes, Roland Emery, Robert Britton, George Stafford, Arthur Dyer, Fred Budarz, T. Leibert, Allan August, Ralph Akey, Tom Fleming, Peter Conway, William Dobbrow

WITH a record of eight wins and one defeat, the 1948 Greenfield High School Green Wave experienced a very successful season and came very close to the 1948 Western Massachusetts schoolboy football championship and crown.

Under the capable direction of Head Coach Carl H. Nichols and Assistant Coaches Stan Benjamin, Earl Richardson, and Danny Dyer, the boys made one of the best squads in many years.

The squad lost the opening contest to Pittsfield High School at the new athletic field. The purple Elephants from the Berkshires capitalized on a brace of Greenie fumbles to score twice before an opening day crowd of thirty-eight hundred fans.

The following week the team traveled to do battle with another Berkshire eleven, Drury High School at North Adams. Although they were hampered by injuries, the Green Wavesters bounced back from their previous defeat with a 19-0 win.

On October 2, the Greenies went on their first extensive road trip to Wakefield. Savage-line play by Juice Moore, Nook Burnishke, and Dick Greene and perfect offensive play in the backfield netted the Greenfields squad a 20-6 win.

After an open date, Northampton High School came here to be whipped in the first half, 25-0. It was the fourth straight whitewashing of a Meadow City team by Greenfield teams, the last four Green Waves totaled 108 points.

Springfield Tech High School invaded the grounds at Veterans Memorial Field only to be routed 39-6 by the Greenies. Sonny Allen and Lennie Harris sparked the defense and "Geo" Dyer and Frank Kelley starred on the defense.

Early Friday morning, October 29, the team left on another road trip to Oneonta, New York, where they encountered the Oneonta High School Yellow Jackets and emerged victorious from another scoring spree, 30-7. The game was played on Halloween eve and because one of the managers forgot to pack the green jerseys, the Greenfield combine used their new whites which make Burns and Allen look like elusive spirits running through the New Yorkers' line. It was in this game that Rabbit Graves made the only touchdown of his career.

The following day the squad saw the Penn State-Colgate collegiate game and visited Baseball's Hall of Fame.

Playing back on their home grounds after completing a perfect record on the road, Greenfield hits its peak in the Holyoke game to win 33-0 on November 4.

On Armistice Day, Westfield High School suffered its only defeat 6-0 at the hands of the rambunctious Green Wave. A third quarter pass play from Howie Burns to Dick Greene caught everyone napping and the only tally was scored. Savage play of Barrel Bonneville, Kavvy Kavanaugh, Geo Dyer, Frank Kelley, and Nook Burniske stopped a Westfield tally with two terrific goal line stands.

The season closed as the arch enemies, Greenfield and Turners Falls met on the field where the Greenies won 14-7. A Turner's punt blocked by Nook Burniske rolled into the end zone for the only two points in the first half. Kenny Saleske scored the first touchdown on a screen pass and Sonny Allen scored the second on a 14 yard jaunt off right tackle after Lennie Harris made the most brilliant run in his career. Johnny Joslyn starred on the defense in this game.

FIRST TEAM

BASKETBALL

The varsity basketball team under the direction of "Danny" Dyer had another exceptional year and finished second in the Valley League. The four veterans from last year's quintet, "Ken" Salisiewski, "Howie" Burns, Justin Moore, and "Lenny" Harris combined with "Johnny" Joslyn and "Dick" Sautter to form a fast and aggressive basketball team. After a slow start caused by football injuries to Captain Salisiewski and Moore, the team caught fire to finish the season with a creditable 11-7 record in interschool play.

A highlight of the year was the Faculty Game played on the night of February 12 to raise funds for the annual trip of the team to Boston to see the New England Interscholastic Finals. After a very hard and clean (?) game, the varsity edged the faculty made up of "Stan" Benjamin, "Georgeous

George" Georgerian, "Slippery Steve" Lovett, "Danny" Dyer, "Jumping Joe" Taylor, "Marshmilo" Galbraith, and "Raunch" Richard" Morris.

Another highlight was the team's victory over Athol High, which had previously gone through 12 straight games undefeated. The fine play of John Joslyn, high scorer of the team, and "Howie" Burns did much to make the victory possible.

To cap a fine season, the Holy Cross Freshman Team was brought to Greenfield to play the varsity in another benefit game to defray expenses of the trip to Boston. Although pressed all the way, the Crusaders' height and passing skill was too much for the high school, but all agreed it was a good basketball game.

JAYVEE BASKETBALL

BECAUSE they were hampered by inexperience, the jayvee basketball team, made up of sophomores, did not enjoy too successful a season. However, the team played some very good basketball and improved steadily toward the end of the season. "Ted" Hoosic, the big six foot center, was high-scorer for the team, while "Eddie" Day, "Rollie" Emery, "Ray" Dykes, Ralph Akey, "Jim" Organ, "Pete" Conway, "Al" Lyman, and "Bobby" Unaitis all played well for "Danny" Dyer. Because the team had to play older and more experienced jayvee teams, it did not amass an impressive record, but, nevertheless, "Danny" Dyer is counting upon some of this year's team to help out the varsity next year.

TENNIS

Alan Lyman, Raymond Tenney, Gene Bond. Second row: Maurice Quinlan, Dale Wyatt.

UNDER the capable direction of a Franklin County Tennis standout, Ray Spencer, the Greenfield High School Tennis Squad did very well in several meets.

The team had only one match scheduled before the season got under way in full swing and that with Westfield High School.

The team included John Prokovich, Ray Tenney, Dale Wyatt, Gene Bond, Maurice Quinlan, John Pochus, Wayne Barber, and Allen.

There was the hope of a possible Valley High School Tennis league but the idea didn't work out as well as several of the Valley High Schools decided not to have teams. Teams in the Valley League include Greenfield, Turners Falls, Northampton, Westfield, Holyoke and Chicopee. Greenfield, Holyoke, Northampton and Westfield were the only Valley schools that had teams.

WITH Stan Benjamin making his debut as coach the Greenfield High School baseball squad hopes to enjoy one of the most successful seasons of recent years. The starting nine includes an all-veteran in field composed of Justin Moore at first, Jim Tetreault at second, "Bob" Pedigree at shortstop, and "Ken" Saleski at the hot corner. The pitching will be handled by Steve Stamatopulos, Tom Ryan, "Mickey" Turner, and Dick Shattuck. Stamatopulos is the only senior among the hurlers. Captain of the team is Howard Burns, who has been an outstanding catcher for three years. Rounding out the varsity are Frank Kelley, John Joslyn, and Stan Doore in the outfield, and Jim Stamatopulos as a versatile utility infielder.

Besides the regular Valley League schedule Greenfield will play Athol, Orange, Brattleboro, West Hartford, and Hopkins Academy. The last three are newcomers to the Greenfield schedule.

Several practice games have been scheduled with Mt. Hermon, Deerfield, and Keene. These games coupled with the independent games will insure that Greenfield will be ready for the Valley League opener with Holyoke on May 2.

No matter what the final outcome of the season play, Greenfield fans are sure to see plenty of fast, smart, aggressive baseball from the 1949 edition of the Greenies.

FOUR years ago the class of '49 were Freshmen. That year there came to Greenfield High School a woman who has done a great deal to make girls' sports more popular. We're referring to Mrs. Dorothy Kells. "Coach" is well known for her undefeated basketball teams, but these teams are not her only contribution to Greenfield High School. She has also introduced field hockey to the school, and since her arrival, softball has increased in popularity.

Not only was the class of '49 her first class, but it will also be her last class because she is leaving G. H. S. this year. With her go all the thanks in the world for being a wonderful "Coach" and all our hopes for the best of luck in the future.

VARSDITY FIELD HOCKEY

Kneeling: Nancy Ackerman, Sheila Dunnigan, Elizabeth Mayers, Billie Harvey, Natalie Carpenter, Rosemary Cotton, Barbara Antone Standing: Phyllis Rogalski, Arlene Dufraine, Shirley Aiston, Joan Duprey, Janet Grotto, Adelaide Clifford, Mary Shea, Eleanor Smiley, Coach Kells.

WITH five games scheduled by manager Janet Zalenski, the Greenfield High Girls' Field Hockey team had an eventful and enjoyable season. Under the coaching of Mrs. Dorothy "Coach" Kells, the team opened its season on September 30. The girls traveled to Keene, N. H., where "Ella" Smiley and Arlene Dufraine, playing left and right inner respectively, scored goals. However, the team returned from the bloody "Dust Bowl Game" with a 6 to 2 loss.

The team rallied on the defense when it met Keene for the second time on home ground. "Duckie" Clifford, "Lizzie" Myers and Janet Grotto filled the fullback spots with Mary Shea at the goal. The result was a 2 to 0 win for Keene.

For its third game the team traveled to Gardner by bus. "Tommie" Aiston was the defensive standout seconded by Sheila Dunnigan and Nancy Ackerman. The "Greenies," however, lost by a 1 to 0 score.

Athol's trip to Greenfield proved to be a 3 to 0 loss for the visitors. With the sharp shooting of Natalie Carpenter and Rosemary Cotton, the team rallied for its first win of the season. Halfback Joan Duprey was outstanding on defense.

Gardner's return game meant another loss for the Greenfield team. With goals by Rosemary Cotton and "Billie" Harvey and the score 3 to 2 in Gardner's favor, the game ended as the "Greenies" were well on their way for another score.

The season ended with a total of one win and four losses.

JAYVEE FIELD HOCKEY

THE Jayvee team lost its opening game to the Keene Jayvees by a score of 2 to 3. The Greenfield scores were worked into the goal by Riella Emery and Mary Jo McNicholas.

The return visit of the Keene team saw much improvement in the defense of the home team. The outstanding halfbacks were Barbara Bristol, Betty Babcock, Cynthia Holman and Anne Hamer. The game was a 1 to 0 win for Keene.

At Gardner the team came through with a 1 to 0 win for their record. Helen Berry received credit for the only score of the game. Fullbacks Rosemary O'Hara and Maryanne

Rogerson saw quite a bit of action.

The Athol game proved to be another win for the Jayvees. Again it was Helen Berry who came through with the single goal. The Greenie's goalie, Mary McHugh, was kept busy at her position, but she managed to keep Athol from scoring. The final score was 1 to 0 for Greenfield.

The return bout with Gardner resulted in the Greenie's third win. Riella Emery and Phyllis Rogalski scored for Greenfield. Notable playing was done by Ann McGuane and Sheila Hayes.

The season ended for the Jayvees with a total of three wins and two losses.

GREENFIELD High School's basketball lassies once again experienced a successful season under the able coaching of Mrs. Dorothy Kells. Starting the season with only two veterans, "Ella" Smiley and "Rosie" Cotton, the team met and defeated Ludlow High.

Despite the excellent playing of "Tommie" Aiston, Joan Duprey and Pat Malloy, the Greenies were handed their first defeat in 40 games at Keene. The local team later gained revenge by defeating Keene with the outstanding playing of Phyllis Rogalski, Carol Spat and Liz Myers.

Betty Shippey, Arlene Dufraine and Maryanne Rogerson showed their ability when the Greenies defeated Turners High.

"Duckie" Clifford proved herself to be an able manager.

In short, the achievements of the 1948-1949 Girls Basketball team will be recalled favorably in the years to come.

THE Greenfield Girls' Jayvee Basketball team has completed a very successful season with twelve wins and only one defeat. Although the team as a whole was inexperienced — none of the girls having played on the school team before — Coach Kells did a fine job in molding the girls into a precision and high-scoring team. Katy Mastaler and Barbara Curtis were outstanding in their all-around play. These girls, along with the rest of the team composed of Mary Hanley, Joanne Brezinski, Connie Graves, Marilyn Barrise, and Barbara Allen, should be a great help to the varsity next year. The team deserves much credit for the excellent play and sportsmanship that it has shown in all the games.

B. U. Professor To Speak

Graduation Program . . .

Dr. William Johannes Pinar, professor of psychology at Boston University, will be the speaker at the Commencement exercises here on June 21. His subject is "Look to the Day."

The early years of Dr. Pinar's life were spent in South Africa. He was born in a concentration camp during the troublous times of the South African Boer War. Following were years characterized by the strife following the war.

After the discovery of diamonds in his district and, because of the mushrooming population, he became a school principal at the age of 17. However, realizing his need for further education, he soon obtained his A.M. and Ed.M. degrees and, in 1927, his Ph.D. in psychology at the University of London.

Dr. Pinar has run twice for the British Parliament and has also written several plays as a hobby. In his wide travels he has addressed groups in South Africa and England as well as America.

In 1931, Dr. Pinar studied at American universities on a Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship. He later returned to the United States as a permanent resident.

The invocation at the ceremony will be offered by Father John J. Kikolakis, Pastor of Sacred Heart Church in Greenfield. The exercises will be terminated with the class song by the recessional.

Rev. Loehr To Give Address

Senior Service . . .

Senior Service will be held in the high school auditorium Sunday, June 19, at 4 P. M.

Rev. Arthur Hopkinson of the First Methodist Church will open the service with the scripture and prayer, following which the Glee Club will sing "Steal Away."

The address, "God's Finished Products Are Man's Raw Materials," will be given by Rev. Franklin D. Loehr, pastor of the Florence Congregational Church of Northampton, Mass.

Following the main address, the assembly will join in the singing of the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers." To close the program Rev. Hopkinson will deliver the benediction.

Ode and Class Song Featured

Class Day . . .

Class Day will be held in the high school auditorium at 10:30 on Monday, June 20.

The Class Prophecy will be read by Williamina Harvey and Robert Graves, the Class History, by Rosemary Cotton and Stephen Stamatos, and the Class Will, by Charles Keller and continued on supplement

Seniors Make Varied Plans

Thrasher, Phippard Announced As Editors For '49-'50

Mr. William L. Hubbard, faculty adviser of the "Exponent," has announced the appointment of Robert Thrasher and James Phippard as co-editors of the 1949-1950 "Exponent." Also appointed was Edward Keller as business manager.

Both Thrasher and Phippard are members of the Junior Class. Thrasher belongs to Junior Pro Merito, while Phippard is the only representative of his class in Silver G. Both are honor students with Thrasher receiving all A's. Both are present members of the "Exponent" staff and issue editors of the Junior Edition.

A great many other editorial positions are still open and will be awarded on the basis of the work shown by the staff in September. Any junior or sophomore who is interested in working on the "Exponent" should see Mr. Hubbard or Gloria Martino.

Silver G Lists Members

The Silver "G" Society of 1948-1949 has a total of sixty-three members. These students are accepted into Silver "G" after filling out an account blank of extra curricular activities with a minimum of 18 points. Although the society is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors, only one junior applied—James Phippard. The remaining sixty-two are seniors.

Many To Attend School

Results of a recent survey conducted by the Exponent with the help of Mr. Lovett showed that most Seniors have definite ideas of what they are going to be doing in the immediate future. As all blanks were not turned in, and some students were not available, this is a only a partial review.

Only a few of those planning to attend school are uncertain as to their choices. These include Norman Aaron, Robert Frank, Mary LaChance, Patricia Mallory, Gloria Martino, Elizabeth Mayers, and Marilyn Miller.

The University of Massachusetts and Northampton Commercial School vied for first place in preferences. Those who will study at "Hamp Commercial next year are: Beverly Bates, John Caloon, Peggy Cheves, Virginia Cole, Joan Duprey, Norma Pluff, Mary Shea, and Robert Tombs. Those students who will be at the University are: Billie Harvey, Robert Hyman, Joe Pele, Allan Pratt, Janet Roberge, Judy Schucker, Ray Tenney, and Francis Fennier.

Quite a few of the Class of '49 graduates are planning to enter the field of medicine. John Prokovich and Ted Chludnick will attend the Massachusetts School of Pharmacy. Madeline Smith is enrolled in the X-ray course at Wilson School, Boston, Mass. The following girls will train in nursing schools: Nancy Ackerman, Shirley Aiston, Patricia Donovan, and Louise Totoro at the Cooley-Dickinson Hospital in Northampton; Dolores Blassberg at Beth Israel Hospital; Irene Golden and Betty Shippey at the Springfield City Hospital; Betty Wing at Pittsfield General Hospital, and Phyllis Tower at the Metropolitan Hospital in New York.

Two future Naval officers are Joseph Muka and Douglas Bonneville. Joe is entering the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis this June; Doug will enter after a year at Bullis Academy, Silver Spring, Maryland.

Some graduates in the Class of 1949, who will enter trade or technical schools are: Edwin Karas and Howard Wing, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Harold Phillips, Boston Radio School; Ronald Campbell, Bartlett Tree School; Dale Wyatt, Franklin Technical Institute; Dorothy Seveze, Doerr Academy, and Paul Goto, Rhode Island School of Design, at Providence.

Two other students who will find themselves in Providence, Rhode Island next year are Lorraine Holmes and Joseph Sexton, who will enter the commercial school, Bryant College.

Teachers colleges seem to be popular with this year's graduates. Shella Dunnigan and Charlotte Russell will continued on supplement

We, the undersigned, acting in behalf of the graduating class of Greenfield High School in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and being of sound body, somewhat sound mind, theory, and practice, do hereby bequeath on this twentieth day of June to the classes of 1950 and 1951 all of our uncharitably possessions and pleasures to be distributed on this day as follows:

First, and foremost, we leave to all underclassmen the Municipal Swimming Pool, Post's Seat Tower, and the Pumping Station for parking purposes between the hours of nine and twelve every night except Saturday. This will become a law and will be enforced.

Secondly, "Kenny" Salisewski gives to "Johnny" Joslyn a well-worn pair of "Keds" and a good "shooin' eye" for the hoop on the basketball.

"Steve" Stamatopolis, with the hope that his shoes may well be filled, hands down to "Tom" Ryan the pitcher's box and a battered pair of spikes.

"Pedro" St. Peter has decided to keep the Charles Atias course which was bequeathed to him from the year before, but instead, he would like to place his "four wheels" worth of Blue Death" on the auction block.

"Howie" Turner has decided to throw into the wastebasket the book, "How to Get Along in an All-Girl Class." He act will be accompanied by the well-put phrase, "It can't be done!"

"Rabbit" Graves leaves to "Rolly" Emery the only touchdown he ever made in three years of football at Greenfield High School. The wish is expressed that the Sophomore speedster might make a touchdown in the annual park where "Rabbit" made his, Newsha Park, at Ononta, New York.

"Barrel" Bonville bequeaths to "Larry" Masello the ability to render in the musical shows a fine imitation of either "Larry" Parks or Asa Yolosinski.

"Howie" Wing has put his diamond-studded, platinum-plated trumpet with the golden tone into the hook shop for "Bill" Casey to swap in trade a battered trombone.

"Funky" Bassett gives one "snooped-up" motorcycle to anyone with courage enough—and money enough—to buy it.

"Bow" Barry leaves to Ralph Akey a modest disposition and the ability at least to score in a basketball game even though it be at the wrong end of the court.

"Barb" Bristol bequeaths to brother "Fred" plenty of skill at the typewriter. He wisely believes that he needs plenty of it to graduate.

Vesta Chickering leaves a bathing suit and a pair of webbed feet at the swimming pool bathhouse for any aspiring underclassman with the same natural ability to learn the art of life-saving that "Chickie" had.

"Chizel" Chludzinski transfers to "Donny" Cardwell the ring-leader spot the former held so long in the fine group cheering at athletic events.

"Geco" Dyer leaves to whoever wishes to foil his classmates in the future the cute ability to knock baskets out of the hoop in "gym" class by climbing up the wall.

"Dick" Greene bequeaths a headache to "Ump" Nichols. The "Ump" is a pigskin legend with the expression, "wasteline," and this line it will have to find a football player with a dual personality. N. t only "Ump" will have to find someone to fill the gaping hole left by "Dick" at the right-end of the line but also he will have to get another punter.

"Phyl" Hawkins leaves school after fifty-six years of hard study and is still firmly convinced that she was right in the argument concerning the closed shop she had in her United States History class—she was all for it.

"Glo" Martino bequeaths to Rosemary O'Hara and Ellen Erisman the ability to arrange popular song titles with some phase of school life for publication in "The Exponent."

"Billy" Perry gives to "Dick" Shattuck a well-moulded, (not much!) set of curls with an instruction booklet entitled, "How to Get the Gern Things to Curl Both Ways at Once."

"Howie" Burns leaves to George Wisniewski and "Mitsy" Creteau all of the athletic department's catching equipment for use in the baseball season next year.

It is the expressed wish of "Burns the Tenor" that Clayton Peters inherit his singing ability "Because" of his great performance in the talent show.

Janet Grotto bequeaths to anyone with an understanding friend her ability to keep a telephone busy.

"Ella" Smiley leaves to Carol Spatz and to anyone else who wants to learn as quickly as "Ella" did her reputation of being the best dancer in Greenfield High School.

"Rosie" Cotton gives to "Katie" Mastaler her love for girls' basketball.

"Bill" Kavanaugh leaves to "Tracy" Burdick a size fifty football uniform and the ability to take care of one's self in Ononta.

"Billie" Harvey bequeaths to Helen Berry the former's battered football jersey etc.

"Pat" Malloy leaves to Mary L. Hanley a great sense of humor and a happy-go-lucky personality.

"Jan" Rogers renders to "Jimmy" Stamatopolis her ability to be in six places at once.

"Lennie" Harris sacrifices to any aspiring and daring youngster with the price of fifty cents that pack of ever-popular "playing cards" which is so worn, thin, and smudged that you have to look quite close to see what card you have.

Lorraine Holm doesn't exactly know what to do with her ballet slippers, but we'll give them to Mary T. Hanley since Lorraine hasn't anything to say about it, anyway.

Elaine Rogalski bequeaths to anyone wishing to follow her pleasing ways the finest personality in the whole Senior Commencement Course.

"Pedro's" Oliers' leave to the underclassmen the domination of Greenfield High School so that the "Oliers" can take care of their oil drums, derricks, and wells out in the far west on the West Desert frontier.

"Juice" Moore bequeaths to anyone with enough "Gs" to catch up with the tall but feet-footed "Juice" a colorful career in the athletic scene.

Frank Kelley departs from Greenfield High School sadly, but he will be content to ride around in "Rabbit's" car.

Nancy Ackerman leaves to anyone who thinks she has a louder voice than her a vital spot in the cheering squad. This is bequeathed with the hope that the Green-and-White lassies may win the cheering cup again in the fall.

"Moldest" John Akey gives Greenfield High School to join the Democratic party and clean up Greenfield! The candidate for representative had some right ideas in mind, however, we must admit.

Barbara Tower leaves to Anne McGuaine a splendid head of red hair.

Laura Noyes wishes to leave a little advice to the juniors who will be graduating next year. She says, "Get your homework done on time, and you will never have to worry!" (She said this?)

"Nat" Carpenter bequeaths to "Buzzy" Pratt, who will also be leaving this fair institution, a book entitled "Miss Wheeler's Instructor Book for Learning to Read the French Horn."

"Christy" Jeronimek and "Ruthie" Walker have decided to keep their favorite corner in "Carl's" which was bequeathed to them from the class before.

Although instantaneous and extemporaneous explosions did not occur in "chem" classes, "Ed" Karas still has the formula he received from this year's P. G., "Ed" Sexton, a senior who graduated last year.

"Bobbie" "Caedmon" Hyman leaves school after trying hard to become the Franklin County Table Tennis Champion (still unsuccessful but still trying).

"Mille" Robbins leaves Mrs. Kelli's Softball squad with no likely replacement, since physical qualities on the ball diamond displayed by "Mille" are so difficult to match.

Finally, we are going to "graduate" on Principal Arthur Watt and take away the opera glasses which were bequeathed to him from the year before because he caught too many Sophomores sleeping in the last row of the balcony during assemblies.

In witness whereof, we here do subscribe our names and affix the seal of 1949 this twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred forty-nine.

Editor's Scratch Pad

Well, here it is June, and this editor is writing her last column for the "Exponent." First of all, we'd like to thank all those who have assisted the Exponent in any way. A list would be endless, but Mr. Taylor, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Lovett, and Mr. Watt have been of especial help.

Also, we would like to wish the best of luck to next year's staff, especially the editors. We can't help wondering what they're going to do with "Cyde McKean." Ever since "Cyde" won the best column contest, even Howie Wing, his originator, has been a little frightened of him.

And finally, we would like to congratulate the class of 1949. All through their high school years they have had remarkable class spirit and co-operation. Best wishes are in order for the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, too; they have a lot to live up to.

Reading over this piece of scribbling, we realize that it sounds as though we're writing our last words and testament. There is no danger, however, for we heard Rose Cotton was trying to make Mr. Lovett set a reunion date for the class of 49.

Ode and Class Song

Adeleide Clifford.

The Ivy Ode, written by Joanna Wunsch, and the Class Song written by Howard Wing, will be sung. After this the class will retire to the back of the high school where the ivy will be planted.

Senior Plans

attend North Adams State Teachers College, Maureen Martin and maybe Maynard Tirrell at Framingham, and Natalie Carpenter and Eleanor Smiley at Bridgewater.

Four boys will be attending prep schools: Gene Bond at Deerfield Academy, Howard Burns at Worcester Academy, Leonard Harris at Mount Hermon, and Maurice Quinlan at Tilton, New Hampshire Prep School. Vesta Chickering is uncertain as to a post-graduate course at G. H. S.

Of those planning to enter the service, three are girls. Lillian Brown and Mildred Robbins want to join the Air Force, and Mari Daley favors the Air Force.

With the boys, the Navy is the favorite. Those who plan to join the Navy are: Fred Bergeron, Richard Conway, William Duffney, Robert Gibson, Robert Graves, William Jarline, William Kavanaugh, Frank Kelley, Charles Kestyn, Justin Moore, Fred Pachalski, John Stevens, Joseph Valvo, and Gerald Porter.

William Lambert and Francis Maaz will join the Army; Francis Lynch, the Air Force; and Donald Durend and Clifford Wright, the Coast Guard.

Class Of '49 Banquet At Weldon Hotel

The Senior Class Banquet was held on June 16 at 6:30 at the Weldon Hotel. The menu was roast turkey, and entertainment followed the dinner.

The Yankee Auctioneer

George H. Bean, the Yankee Auctioneer, spoke to the public speaking classes Thursday, May 5, at 2:00 P. M. His subject was "Two Little Books," a story of the travels and adventures of the English ship, "Resolute," in the days of Queen Victoria.

In addition to his varied career as insurance salesman, probation officer, and official of the Tri-County fair, Mr. Bean has written an account of his experiences in auctioneering. This best seller is called "Yankee Auctioneer."

Mr. Bean now lives in Florence, Mass. where he holds auctions every Friday night in addition to the three or four elsewhere during the week.

Class Prophecy

Time: 1974 Saturday, October to the first power.
Place: The New Post's St. Tower located twelve stories above the Old Post Office.
Character: Will-the-Stuff and Digger O'Graves.
W: "I can't understand this! Digger O'Graves said that he would meet me here a full three hours ago. We were to have a day and evening together before the big twenty-five reunion tomorrow. I can't imagine what's detained him. He always was so punctual!"
D: "Dig me, Will. How I explain! Two desperate crooks, 'Straight-edge' Curley and 'Hard' Hitt, tickled me with one of 'Chickie' Chickering's tickling chicken fictions. How it yelled! I was lucky to have a Golden nickel, honoring Irene, in one of my leather foot coverings, which was manufactured by the Conway 'Comfy' Covering Company. My nickel got me up the elevator of this tower. I didn't know 'Up Old' St. Peter once takes it up, the other takes it down."
W: "I didn't realize that, Digger. I walked up the inlaid Strange stairs. They're pretty solid! Now that you're here, what's lined up for the trip?"
D: "Let's take that 'Phil' and 'Barb' Tower Tour on the Bonzek Bustling Bus Line."
W: "Sure, Digger. Down we go!"
Will-the-Stuff and Digger O'Graves arrive at the bus station. "Grab on of those 'Daley Traveler's Guides' for the Metropolitan Greenfield!"
W: "Say, that's the Double D Newstand, Dobias and Dobias. You get the guide, and I'll get the tickets. See ya' on the bus."
The two characters meet again on the bus.
W: "Heigh ho! We're off! This is a mighty comfortable riding bus. Dig the cushions! Say, they're Kestyn's Custom-Made Cushions. Did you know that 'Betty' Scully was his secretary? She's a graduate of the Wright Secretarial School here in the city. Look, Digger, there's Jardine's Sardine Shop. Looks as if he'd been a success."
D: "Hey, look at that 'ad'! If you have a code in your 'ditty, use Morse Code Tablets." Get 'em! Morse code!"
W: "I've heard that 'Doc' Sevens is kept busy making 'ditty dah dah' hankies." She lives in one of those cute little 'Half-Way Holmes' houses. Lorraine Holmes and John Caloon are co-proprietors of Caloon's Ballet Solo Shop down on 'The Dick Herzig Highway."
D: "We just passed Dr. Live Or Dyer. He must be on his way to treat one of 'Bob' Pedigree's dogs. There's Holley's Hock Shop. Last week one of her best customers, 'On Parole' Phillips, tried to hock the corner fire plug. Triger Chick 'How R' U' Burns really got hot, and he called in 'Fearless' Fregneau's detectives. 'Figger B.' Cook and 'Finger Chick' Phillips cleared up the case in short order."
W: "We're stopping! It's the Brown Crown Radio Network Broadcasting Company. Off we go inside to visit the studios. Hey, our new guide is none other than 'Fearless' Fregneau. Did you hear him just send away one of those Aaron errand boys with details about a new Duprey Dishwasher as a gift from the Barry Good Mourning Show? That program is sponsored by the Gay Morticians, 'Moe moe' Martin and 'Edmy' Jacobs."
D: "I hear that it's their good business that keeps the Smiley Tombs Company at work. Other than that, things really would be dead."
W: "He's taking us one of the studios where there is a Broadway going on. Look, the orchestra is 'Howie' Wing and his Band of Swings! Listen to that rhythm from 'Hush-hush' Hertsch at the drums. Say, that's Betsey Wing at the piano. She has great talent. Have you ever heard her rendition of 'Honey's Second Concerto from the Red Barn' or 'He Pounds the Hammer While His Sister Holds the Nail'?"
D: "Yeah, that's pretty good! I get a bang out of that song, but let's go back to the bus. I'd like to go and hear 'The Whisperer,' otherwise known as 'Ted' Chludzinski, call at the Hog Callers Convention."
W: "It feels good to be sitting again. I guess the bus is low on gas. We're stopping at the Hayde Gasoline Station. Say, that's 'Barb' Antone, polishing the cars. I can see that she uses 'Pec's' Talcum Shere. That's a bright one!"
D: "Now that we're moving again, notice that there isn't any exhaust. There must be a Boutwell exterminator on this bus. A friend of mine, 'Classy' Cassy' Caldwell, had one installed in her car down at the Hill Garage." Scooter Smead did the installing."
W: "I'm so glad that all of our classmates have made a success of themselves. It's too bad that a few of them won't be able to attend our reunion tomorrow, but I guess that Hollywood and MGM-M, Miska, Grotto, and Malloy have started a new production entitled 'Visitors at the Pole? It is the story of 'Klondike' Hawkes. It seems that 'Snezy' Hohenegger, 'Lily' Musiak, and 'Snug-shooing' Schucker went to see 'Klondike,' and they convinced her that she should write her adventures in a book. 'Ducky' Clifford is playing the leading role, and she is supported by 'Trotter' Tirrell, 'Bamboo' Bassett, and 'Cinema' Christensen. It will be a top picture."
D: "Wonderful. Porter's musical, 'Robbins come Home,' is a smash hit on Broadway. 'Kid' Kavanaugh and 'Sweetnote' Sheehan are sensational in the leads. This same show features the dancing team of Shea, Sharkey, Seremeth, and Spaulding. They are a terrific dancing team with exceptional numbers."
W: "Big 'Bob' Morasu and 'Chuckles' Scott are on Broadway with a soft-shoe tap routine. Again I say it's too bad they won't be with us tomorrow."
D: "There's Bonneville Stadium. Hey, that sign states that the Hog Callers Convention has been called off. 'Willie' Gibas' prize hog has been taken ill. Nice stadium anyway! It was erected by the Campbell and Campbell Construction Company. Mayor Robert Frank had the plans drawn up by head architect Iorio. The building is a tribute to the first Republican president since the Roosevelt term."

W: "I'm ready for some lunch, how about you?"
D: "Always. This bus stops at Jackman's Pick-up Luncheonette. Here it is now." After leaving the bus and entering the restaurant, we again rejoin our characters.
W: "Our waitress is 'Rush-order' Gagnon. Let's order one of the chef's specials. I never thought that 'Baker' Bond would be a chef!"
D: "Marjorie Burns did a nice job on these wall decorations, didn't she? She graduated from the Gebu School of Art. That's 'Shaker' Hawkins working on the fountain."
W: "Here's our lunch. How nice it looks! I bet they buy their Cole Slaw from Virginia's 'Maurice' Cronk's Delicatessen Shop down the street. It's right along side Dunnigan's Donut Shoppe."
D: "Look at that 'ad' on the register, 'Will.'"
"Girls, come to 'Richie's Beauty Salon And have your hair done By the Boy with the Greene hair!"
That's pretty good!"
W: "Digger, I haven't seen 'Juice' Moore for a long time. I wonder what he's doing?"
D: "I heard he was doing twenty-five years at Elm Street College for Mechanical Knowledge, where 'Statistic' Stamatopolis is president and 'Hobnob' Hyman is filing clerk. They say 'Squirrel Buzz' Pratt is in charge of the nuts."
W: "Look at that sign with John 'Bobby' Cronk's signature and recommendation for Mazor's Razors. Pretty sharp! Isn't advertising a wonderful thing, Digger?"
D: "It sure is, Will. Madeline Smith is doing a good job as the city advertising censor. She has Laura Noyes working as her assistant."
W: "Now that you've finished your lunch, Digger, let's get on with the afternoon events. What say that we go see 'Franny' Lynch's Hell Drivers? They're down at Randall's Race Track. Marie Powers is going to be there as the speciality of the show this season."
D: "That ought to be good. Let's go! It's just a short way, Will. So why don't we leave our tour and walk?"
W: "Sure. Look! There's 'Betty' Shippey across the street! She must be on her way to see Norma Pluff. There are a big success with the Huffy Pluff Shipping Service. Who said women couldn't manage things?"
D: "Hey, look in this window! There's John Zarr, 'Joyce' Valvo, and 'Bobby' Bukowski inside, and 'Will' Duffney just entered. Oh, look, this is 'Gibby's' and Albert's Pool Room. Remember Gibson and Kujdzio?"
W: "I know you want to go in, Digger, but we must be on our way. That sign over that door would cause us to visit the ants, 'Nat' Carpenter and 'Ken' Salsiewicz, certainly keep them busy, too."
D: "They are capable of helping anyone, though. The last time I was there, Janet Mattis and 'Betty' Chesney were on the staff. 'Betty' told me that 'Klean-the-kitchen' Karas kept them busy, too."
W: "Isn't it nice that so many of our classmates are in business here in the city, Digger? Here's Reed's Book Store. Ramon is another of our classmates. I purchased in there the other day a copy of 'Lenny' Harris' latest book, 'Touring with Prok's Pros'. That book of 'Lenny's' told of his trips and playing experiences with John Prokovich's team. 'Big Fred' Bergeron and 'Just-in-time' Jurcek were mentioned quite a few times as invaluable players."
D: "Will, there's 'Dutchy' Jones out in the middle of the street directing the traffic. He's been with the police force ever since 'Ken' Lyman and 'Jumbo' Quinlan bought his farm. After attending 'Bill' Lambert's 4-1-5 Conference, Lyman and Quinlan decided to get a farm for themselves and raise skin less cows to eat on the hoof."
W: "Have you seen the new fountain here on the common, Digger? It was dedicated last week to Donald Duress for his twenty-five faithful years as president of the Young National Marjorie Liberite. She and 'Fred' Pachalis are both in the statue-making business. Perry's Ferry takes the children around the base of the statue in the pool. 'Joe' Sexton is the life guard."
After a few hundred feet of silence and quick steps, the two characters are at the race track.
D: "I've got the tickets, Will, and I bought them from none other than 'Selle-m-al' Stevens. I'll get some candy from one of those girls. Just a minute!"
W: "Do you know who you got that candy from, Digger? They are 'Peg' Donahue and Hellen Watrous. I did read about their concession at various track events. In fact, I read the article in 'Dick' Gardner's 'Sport Review'. There are really some nice articles in it."
D: "I read it when it came through the mail, but otherwise I pick up the news at 'Clipper' Akey's Barber Shop. 'Clipper' employs 'Liz' Mayers to hold the younger customers' heads so that they won't be afraid. 'Clipper' doesn't know it; but so does 'Bomber' Kelley dresses daily as a seven-year-old and visits the shop. The 'Bomber' had better be careful, or 'Clipper' might take after him with a Bristol Brush and give him the brush off."
W: "Let's sit here, Digger. We still have a minute or two before the show starts. We can watch Cowboy 'Fran' Clark and his horse do tricks. It's nice to have some type of entertainment before the main event, don't you think?"
D: "Yeah, Clark's horse is a real show. I remember the East 'good performer.' 'Mikie' Mastaler is one of Ray's employees. He tries to track aviation. Horsefies, that is!"
W: "Speaking of insects, Digger, I read in the paper last week that 'Barb' Steiner and Regina Greene were touring the East with their new species of the bee. They call it the 'May' bee. The first notice of its existence was made at the home of 'Christie' McDonough. It seems that her gardener, 'Art' Wood, was fascinated by it, and he drew 'Christie's' attention to it when he started to sing to it."

Girls' Softball Team Has A Successful Season

Starting with a team on which each individual player took over a new position, the Greenfield girls proved to have a very successful season.

The girls dazzled many a competitor as they exhibited excellent ball playing along with powerful hitting.

Much credit goes to Coach Dorothy Kells and the managers, "Pat" Morley and Mary Anne Rogerson, who spent many hours picking up bats and looking for lost softballs.

Our home run ace was Phyllis Rosaglad, pitcher, and "Tommie" Aiston, who, not only played first base but also captained the team. "Ella" Sailley took second, while Rosemary Conlay played on the "hot corner." Riella Emery played behind the plate, "Liz" Mayers played shortstop and alternating outfielders were: Anne McGuane, Mary L. Hanley, "Mille" Robbins, "Billie" Harver, Lottie Helen and "Catie" Mastaler.

Other team members included Maureen Martin, Marilyn Barisse, Janet Bryzinski, Mary Lou McLaugh, Alice Hodas, Peggy Dedinas, Alice Hume, Betty Babcock, Phyllis Babcock, Marilyn Bristol, and Dolores Kestyn.

The schedule is as follows:

May 6	Powers	home
May 10	Arms	away
May 13	Northfield	home
May 20	Powers	home
May 25	Deerfield	away
May 27	Arms	home
May 31	Deerfield	home
June 3	Northfield	away

WALKING

*I like to walk in spring
Through lovely lanes of trees,
For there's something about walking
That sets my heart at ease.*

*I like to walk in autumn
In a gently falling rain,
For there's something about walking
That frees my soul from pain.*

*I like to walk in winter
And feel the grip of cold,
For there's something about walking
That makes me strong and bold.*

*I like to walk in summer
When day turns into night,
For there's something about walking
That gives my spirit light.*

—Louise Richardson

CONTRACT

*The dawn is not soft,
I have seen it.
The dawn is veins of cold, hard pink quartz
In the stark blue mine of the sky.*

*But the sunset is soft,
I have seen it.
The sunset is a brimming wine-glass, spilled
On the smooth, pale tablecloth of the sky.*

- A. C. Say no more! Getting back to what we weren't talking about, we started our senior year by electing "Doug" Bonneville, president; George Dyer, vice-president; Rosemary Cotton, secretary; and "Ken," treasurer.
- S. P. What a football season we had that year. After losing to Pittsfield the team whizzed through the season and won eight straight. Even though the championship went to Westfield, we can really say we had a champion team.
- A. C. That Westfield game was really something.
- S. P. I think a lot of the credit for such a season should go to the cheerleaders. By the way, weren't you elected captain of the group?
- A. C. Yes, I was. You haven't seen any of the other cheerleaders up here, have you?
- S. P. Not yet, but I wish they'd hurry up.
- A. C. That was a swell job that the senior play cast did in presenting "What A Life." "Howie" Wing and Sheila Dunnigan really put on convincing performances.
- S. P. And don't forget "Buzzy" Pratt as Mr. Ferguson and "Bibi" Hyman as Mr. Bradley. What characters!
- A. C. Mr. Hubbard certainly did a fine job with the play, which was a complete success. It shows what a class can do if it really gets behind something.
- S. P. Speaking of getting things done, Gloria Martino, who was elected Editor of the "Exponent," kept busy afternoons.
- A. C. Remember the time that we had getting a name for the yearbook? Considering who was editing it, it wasn't too bad a yearbook.
- S. P. We won't talk about that.
- A. C. Do you recall election morning at the high school when John Akey jumped up and down and "Doug" Bonneville moaned in a corner? I don't think "Doug" believes it yet.
- S. P. The basketball team climaxed a good season by going down to Boston to see the finals of the New England tournament. And, by the way, didn't the girls' team finally lose some games?
- A. C. Yes, they lost two games but still had a very fine season.
- S. P. Imagine all of two losses! Why! they did almost as well as the baseball team.
- A. C. The State Convention of Pro Merito was held that spring with you as presiding officer. You had quite a busy spring—playing baseball, going to Boston for Good Government Day, and attending the Model Congress at American International College.
- S. P. Yes, that was quite a class we had. Boy! how I wish I could re-live some of those days. Whoops, there goes the bell. I've got to get back to work.
- A. C. You can't just leave me all alone. What am I going to do?
- S. P. Let's check the log and look up your record. Let's see, Cotton, R. Cotton. (looks in log book). Oh! Oh! Somebody's made a terrible mistake. You don't belong up here yet. Come on, you're going to take a quick trip back to earth.
- A. C. You mean to say I've got to go back?
- S. P. That's right. Hurry. You'll just make the last elevator!

Nicknames Again

Woe is me! There always seems to be such an over abundant supply of nicknames around this honored building, yet no one seems to know where they came from—at least certain people never tell me.

Of course, there's "Zip" Caldwell, to name one. It's certainly pretty obvious where he got his nickname. Or is it! Actually it's inherited from his father. But the name of his car. Wow! There's not another name like it for miles around—Not even in Turner's Falls—"Shizmocettes." Isn't that a mouthful? We've heard that "the Shizmocettes" isn't long for this world. How about it, Zip?

Then there's a couple of P.G.'s who have rather crazy names. We can't figure out why they call Art Waite "Sleeper." His eyes are the brightest we've seen for a long time. What a sales talk! Want any?

The other guy is "Pounder" Black. That one puzzles us. Come on Don, let us in on the secret?

Then we have Jimmy "Soupy" Campbell. You know, "Soupy" as in Campbell's Chicken Noodle Soup (plug, plug.)

The other day we saw a fellow walking around the corridors of G.H.S. Someone hollered "Pretzel," and by golly, he answered! He's the very first pretzel we've ever seen walking around, but then, G.H.S. is always first in every thing.

We gotta be buzzing—as in Pratt, you know—along now. See you next issue.

The man that blushes is not quite a brute.

God sends meat, and the Devil sends cooks.

Brown had a lovely baby girl,
The stork had left her with a flutter;
Brown named her "Oleomargarine"

For he hadn't any but her.

John Grader '50: "I wonder what fool it was that invented kissing?"

The right way to kill time is to work it to death.

According to one of Mr. Hubbard's pupils, the definition of malady is a "gentle woman."

Dick, '50: "Sticky!"

Barb, '49: "I consider sheep the stupidest creatures living."

Herb, '49: "Yes, my lamb."

Jim, '50: "Don't you think it's unlucky to postpone a wedding?"

Stan, '50: "Not if you keep postponing it."

Child: "Daddy, what do people mean by the curse of wealth?"

Father: "Its scarcity, dear."
